LARGEST CIRCULATION IN CITY AND COUNTY

The sun shone out Tuesday for the first time this year.

Hon. M. W. LaRue has retired from the Commonwealth.

The Hermitage Distillery will commence running Monday for the first time this season.

Dr. U. V. Williams now has a telephone at his residence in South Frankfort. His number is 71.

Mr. Ben. Warren and Miss Newman will be married at the Catholic Church in this city Thursday.

Mr. Jas. F. Daily, grocer on Market street, made an assignment Monday for the benefit of his creditors.

FOR RENT.—A furnished room suitable for a single gentleman, located on St. Clair Street. Apply to L. Davis.

Frankfort Royal Arch Chapter, No. 3, meets in regular monthly communication Tuesday evening, at 7 o'clock.

We are glad to be able to say that Master William L. Pence, jr., who has been very ill, is able to be out again.

Frankfort Commandery, No. 4, K. T., will meet in regular monthly convocation on Thursday evening next, at 7 1/2 o'clock.

The McCrory Guards will on next Tuesday evening elect a Second Lieutenant to succeed Mr. Geo. L. Payne, resigned.

The Quarterly Court meets Monday, at which time the suit for "gitting a jury" will come up and will probably be dismissed.

Mr. John W. Gaines, the present temporary sheriff, is announced in another column as a candidate for that office at the August election.

John Pettis, Louisville, says: "I have been using Brown's Iron Bitters for two weeks and it has nearly cured me of chronic dyspepsia."

Saturday the Lawrenceburg Telephone Company paid the rest of their instruments for the past year and the line was again opened for business.

The common school teachers of the county have been paid the 40 per cent. of the school fund by Common School Commissioner J. S. Harrod.

If the Governor does not call out the militia to go to Grayson to guard Neel and Craft some of our "bold rogues" will need sitting up with at night.

Hon. Clarence U. McElroy, of Bowling Green, will deliver the annual address before the Kentucky Historical Society in this city, on the 12th of February.

The tow-boat Alex. Montgomery, brought up on Tuesday four barges of coal, two for the E. H. Taylor, Jr. Co. and two for Messrs. W. A. Gaines & Co.

The damage to the Christian Church has been repaired sufficiently for it to be used to-morrow, and the usual morning and evening services will be held in the audience room.

The office of the Register of the Land Office will, in a few days, be removed to a room in the east wing of the new Capitol building, which has been fitted up for the purpose.

The store of Mr. Chas. L. McKee, in Belle Point, was burglarized Sunday night and robbed of about forty dollars in money. An entrance was effected by breaking one of the front windows.

If Catarrh has destroyed your sense of smell and hearing, Hall's Catarrh Cure will cure you. 75 cents per bottle.

Rev. R. J. Laughlin, of Louisville, will fill the Pulpit of the Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning and evening.

Alex. Adams, Louisville, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters cured me when suffering from general debility and broken down constitution."

The taking of evidence in the Frank Egbert trial was concluded Saturday afternoon and the argument was begun Monday morning. The court-room was filled with an eager throng all day Monday and Tuesday, but while the Commonwealth's Attorney, Mr. DeJarnette, was making the closing argument, which was a masterly effort, Tuesday afternoon, it was packed to suffocation. At the close of his speech the case was given to the jury, who had failed to make a verdict up to late yesterday afternoon.

In the Circuit Court Wednesday "Big Liz," the colored woman who set fire to the work-house, was given one year in the penitentiary. Henry Whiting, colored, was acquitted of the charge of assisting Dan Chapman in getting out of jail, and the case of Sam Girden, charged with breaking into Mr. L. Tobin's cellar and stealing meat, was continued until the February term. Moses Booker, who last week was convicted of stealing carpet from Mr. Peter Sower, and sentenced to the Penitentiary, prayed an appeal.

Some weeks since our Elmville correspondent gave a school teacher in that neighborhood a tough sum to solve which so far he has failed to do, and now a friend sends the following for the masthead of the Elmville preacher:

"Suppose you want to kill thirty hogs in five days, killing an odd number every day, how many will you kill each day?"

Our devil has not slept any at night since the above was sent in, and the amount of figuring that has been done upon it in our office would make any blackboard turn pale.

Dr. W. J. Carver, the champion rifle shot of the world, was in the city the first of the week, looking for fine horses. He gave a private exhibition of his skill to a few friends Monday afternoon, at Col. Pepper's training track, near the city, and showed with what ease he could hit a silver dollar when thrown into the air, the edge toward him, or hit three glass balls, two thrown up in front of him and the other behind, before they reached the ground. He is a large young man, and resembles somewhat the late Capt. Thos. J. South, of this city.

"Crown Jewel" patent flour at Day & Hall's.

A personal difficulty occurred on St. Clair street Thursday morning between Col. R. P. Pepper and Mr. Cesar Shubinski, in which a pistol, billiard balls and their fists figured largely. Mr. Shubinski was just entering the door of Mr. Jack Veach's billiard saloon when Col. Pepper came up and said something to him about rent he was owing Col. P.'s mother-in-law, Mrs. Starling, for a house in which he had been living. In the course of the conversation abusive epithets were made use of by both men, blows followed, Shubinski drew a pistol, Col. Pepper closed with him, and in the scuffle was struck over the head with the pistol. The two men fell to the floor, outsiders interfered, disarmed Shubinski, and pulled Col. Pepper off of him. When they got upon their feet again, Shubinski got hold of a billiard cue when Col. Pepper caught up the balls from a billiard table and began throwing them at him, one ball striking him in the back of the head as he went out the door. In the skirmish both men were considerably bruised up.
